Welcome to Rijeka!

How to get to and survive in Rijeka
Rijeka has been an important port settlement since ancient times and it is the centre of the Primorje – Gorski Kotar County.

Traces of its rich past can be seen throughout the city, in its buildings and monuments.

Croatia’s third-largest city, Rijeka, borders the Adriatic Sea. It is a bustling blend of gritty 20th-century port and Italianate Habsburg grandeur.

Although it is a port city, that does not make the atmosphere heavily industrial. It has retained its coastal charm.
Those who appreciate cultural monuments can enjoy visiting...

Governor’s Palace

St. Vitus Cathedral

Municipal Palace

Modello Palace
You can also visit: remains of late Antiquity buildings like the Old Gateway (Roman Arch) and the Trsat Castle, the Shrine of Our Lady of Trsat, the City Tower or any of the numerous museums (Rijeka City Museum, Natural History Museum) and galleries (Laval, Kortil, Kontinental)
While in Rijeka, don’t forget to take a short trip to national parks Učka and Risnjak or small towns near Rijeka, such as Kastav, Crikvenica, and Opatija.
