

Travel Information Welcome to Frankfurt (Oder)

Frankfurt (Oder) is a German university city on the Polish border with 57.015 inhabitants. It is known for its Gothic brick buildings such as the Town Hall, which houses part of the Museum 'Junge Kunst' and its collection of East German art. The Kleist Museum is dedicated to the German playwright Heinrich von Kleist, who is also honored with a monument and the large Kleistpark.

More information about the city (also in English) can be found here: Startseite / Frankfurt \(Oder\) \(frankfurt-oder.de\)

Other hotels:

Hotel Polonia is very close to IHK, but tends to have rather noisy rooms since they face a main street.
Hotel Altberesinchen is ok, but we would not recommend it that much.

We will pick you up by car from your hotel if you like☺

Nice restaurants in the city centre:

Bulle & Bär, Kartoffelhaus, Kleist-Café (near Kleistpark).

At night you might only find food at the station (Burger King etc). It is also recommendable to eat in Poland, but we will also go there together☺ You can pay there in Euro, so don't worry.

Meeting venue

IHK-Projektgesellschaft
Room 302 (Haus C)
Puschkinstr. 12b
15236 Frankfurt (Oder)
